Winemaker Notes

The Rosso di Montalcino 2014 is a super selection in a difficult vintage for Brunello di Montalcino, of grapes from old vineyards that we usually use for Brunello and Brunello Riserva. The system of selection based on the berry by berry selection that we introduced at Canalicchio di Sopra a few years ago allowed us to select the good fruits with a surprising results in terms of purity; a little less alcohol than the last years (13,5%), make this Rosso di Montalcino one of the most beautiful elegant Rosso we ever made.

The idea that each wine must be valorized based on its characteristics and strong points is something very clear at Canalicchio di Sopra; we know that we have to valorize a vintage like 2010 making a great Brunello and a super Riserva as we know we have to valorize a vintage like 2014 making a great Rosso di Montalcino; this is the history of Rosso di Montalcino for Canalicchio di Sopra: some of the best Rosso have been made in difficult vintage for Brunello with the simple recipe of using Brunello grapes from old vines to make Rosso di Montalcino.
