CANALICCHIO DI SOPRA®

BRUNELLO DI MONTALCINO
VIGNA MONTOSOLI

2019

TERROIR SENSE
WINE REVIEW

94/100

Dark red- ruby. Very spicy, herbal nose only hints at dark plum and cherry. Then big thick and layered, with a mouthcating richness to its dark plum and herb flavours that are long on power but short on finesse. Strange as it seems, this is actually bigger and meatier than the La Casaccia: I have no doubts it will be scored higher by almost every wine writer out there, but mark my words, it is La Casaccia that is the greater of the two wines.
Down the road, all those who prefer the Montosoli today will change their minds. Canalicchio di Sopra's 2019 Montosoli Brunello will need plenty of time in a good cellar before being fully approachable and revealing of all it has to offer. Drinking window: 2034- 2045.
