

CANALICCHIO DI SOPRA®

BRUNELLO DI MONTALCINO
VIGNA MONTOSOLI

2018

JEB DUNNUCK

96_{/100}

Taking things to the next level, the 2018 Brunello Di Montalcino Vigna Montosoli is outstanding, with fleshy red cherry, menthol, cedar, and forest floor. It is full-bodied, though more savory and compact in nature than the base Brunello Di Montalcino, with sage, dried herbs, graphite, dark earth, and plum pit. It is coiled and needs time in the cellar before drinking, and although it is less obvious in this wine, I think it will be the winner long term. Drink 2025-2040.
